Privacy Policy

Your privacy is a top priority at SPAX®. This Privacy Policy covers our treatment of personal information that this site gathers when you visit. For details, continue reading:

Information We Collect

Our visitors - Automatic Data Collection

Like most websites, spax.us collects non-personally identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. Our purpose in collecting non-personally-identifying information is to better understand how our visitors use this website. From time to time, we may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of this website.

Spax.us also collects potentially personally identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses. However, we do not use such information to identify our visitors and do not disclose such information, other than under the same circumstances that we use and disclose personally identifying information, as described below.

Our Customers - Information You Provide to Us

Certain actions on our website do require us to collect personally identifying information. SPAX® collects such information only insofar as is necessary or appropriate to fulfill the purpose of the visitor's interaction with our company. We will never disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below.

Aggregated Statistics

SPAX® may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to its websites. For instance, we may find it helpful to monitor the most popular pages on our site, and we may display this non-personally-identifying information publicly or provide it to others. However, SPAX® will never disclose personally identifying information other than as described below.

Protection of Certain Personally-Identifying-Information

SPAX® may find it necessary to disclose potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information to only to those of its employees, contractors, and affiliated organizations that (i) need to know that information in order to process it on our behalf, or to provide services requested by the customer, and (ii) that have agreed not to disclose it to others. Some of those employees, contractors, and affiliated organizations may be located outside of your home country; by using spax.us, you consent to the transfer of such information to them. SPAX® does not rent or sell potentially personally identifying and personally identifying information to anyone. Other than to its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations, as described above, SPAX® only discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information if required to do so by law, or when we believe in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the property or rights of SPAX®, third parties or the public at large. SPAX® takes all measures reasonably necessary to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of potentially personally identifying and personally identifying information.

Cookies

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer and the browser provides to the website each time that visitor returns. We do not use cookies to intrude in your privacy or do anything other than match you up with your information on our site.

Communications

Email Privacy Policy

We have created this email privacy policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy and the protection of your information.

Why did you receive an email from us?

If you received a mailing from us, (a) your email address is either listed with us as someone who has expressly shared this address for the purpose of receiving information in the future ("opt-in"), or (b) you have registered or purchased or otherwise have an existing relationship with us. We do our best to respect your time and attention by controlling the frequency of our mailings.

How we protect your privacy

We use security measures to protect against the loss, misuse, and alteration of data used by our system.

Sharing and Usage

We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information with anyone without your advance permission or unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you emails based on your request for information and to contracted service providers for purposes of providing services relating to our communications with you.
